Zachary Arons advises ultra-high-net-worth individuals and families on a wide array of domestic and international tax issues, business planning, wealth succession, and trust and estate matters. Bearing in mind that his clients' wealth did not grow on trees, he implements a holistic approach to each client's unique portfolio by congruently analyzing their professional and personal needs and aspirations. He strives to provide top-notch counsel to family offices, businesspersons, philanthropists and visionaries to optimize taxation and fulfill various non-tax goals.

An able, amicable and available Private Wealth attorney

Builders have hammers, doctors have scalpels, and attorneys have words. Very few industries cultivate communication and interpersonal relationships quite like the law. This is precisely what drew Zachary in, and it is where he excels. He is energized by open communication with his clients — whether it be carefully listening to their needs, or diligently breaking down complex legal issues, his favorite days are those spent speaking with his clients. While he takes pride in his research skills, eye for due diligence and attention to detail, he finds that behind every successful business and family are people, and his ability to learn those people makes the legal work easy.
